In case of withdrawal before maturity for the deposit length of 3 months or more since the date of deposit, the Bank will pay the savings interest rate for individual customer (column 1) of the withdrawal amount (both in partial and in full) with withholding tax deduction in accordance with conditions specified by the Revenue Department, effective from 1 August 2016 onwards. For the remaining deposit balance, the Bank will pay the interest at the rate as announced on the deposit date and will not count in the sum of deposit with other deposits.

In case of withdrawal before maturity for FDR and NCD with term of 7 days but less than 1 month, 1 month month but less than 2 months, and 2 months but less than 3 months, the Bank will pay interest at savings interest rate for individual customer (column 1) of the withdrawal amount but not exceeding the interest rate specified on the certificates with withholding tax deduction in accordance with conditions set by the Revenue Department. In case of withdrawal before maturity for FDR - No Early Termination, no early redemption is allowed in respect of this FDR, the Bank is not required to pay any interest accrued pursuant to this FDR.

In the case of periodic interest, if the depositor has received the interest more than the actual amount according to the deposit period.

The Bank will deduct the principal deposit to compensate the excess interest before paying to the depositor. The Bank reserves the right not to refund the withholding tax deducted from interest payment since it is already submitted to the Revenue Department (RD). The depositor must contact the RD for the refund of withholding tax. In this regard, the withdrawal under the periodic interest payment must be made in full amount. The partial withdrawal

In the case of changing the fixed deposit account with passbook and FDR into the NCD before maturity date, the Bank will pay interest by calculating from the date of deposit until the date of change at the rate as specified for each type of fixed deposit accounts. The deposit account will be subsequently converted to NCD based on the original principal amount, the interest rate and the maturity date. However, the depositor must deposit money for at least 3 months.

In the case of periodic interest, the depositor allows the Bank to pay interest into the savings account and deduct the withholding tax as determined by the Revenue Department from each interest payment. In all cases, the depositor agrees not to claim for the tax-deducted amount from the Bank. In the event that the interest receipt due date is on the bank holiday, the depositor allows the Bank to pay the periodic interest after withholding tax deduction into to the bank account on the next business day, except for FDR that receives the interest by transferring into other bank's account or by cheque. In the case of the deposit maturity date is on the bank holiday and the depositor is unable to receive the deposit on the bank holiday, the deposit maturity date will be the first business day after the bank holiday and the interest calculation will also include the bank holiday.

When the depositor withdraws interest or partially withdraws the principal on the first business day and continue to deposit, the Bank will consider such

	2.6.22.11	If the depositor does not meet the conditions of the special three-month fixed deposit account, the Bank reserves the right to adjust down the interest rate payable on the deposit to match that of a general three-month fixed deposit with passbook, according to the Bank's interest rate announcement on the date of the deposit. This includes the cases where:
		- The customer purchases life insurance for less than the deposit amount and below the minimum premiums specified by the Bank.
		- The customer cancels the policy during the consideration period (15 days from policy receipt).
		- The customer's application is declined based on the insurance company's underwriting criteria and conditions. The customer must contact the Bank to close the account within 15 days from the date of rejection notification. Otherwise, the deposit will earn the general 3-month fixed deposit rate with passbook, according to the Bank's interest rate announcement on the date of the deposit.
	2.6.22.12	In the case where a depositor makes a deposit by cheque and any of by cheques are returned, resulting in the deposit amount below the minimum account opening requirement, it is considered a breach of the conditions. Therefore, the deposit will receive the interest rate of general 3-month fixed deposit with passbook, as per the Bank's interest rate announcement on the deposit date.
	2.6.22.13	If the fixed deposit matures and the depositor does not withdraw, provide further instructions, or cannot be contacted, the Bank will renew the deposit as a general fixed deposit. The 3-month fixed deposit with passbook will receive an interest rate as announced by the Bank at the time of renewal, and the interest shall be payable upon the deposit's maturity.
	2.6.22.14	If the fixed deposit matures on bank holidays, and the depositor cannot withdraw the funds on bank holidays, the Bank will consider the next business day as the due date for deposit withdrawal and interest for the holiday will also be calculated.
		If the depositor withdraws the interest or partial principal on the first business day, the remaining deposit will be renewed and treated as a new deposit starting from that day.

2.7.3

Split-rate interest calculation is as exemplified below.

THB 1 million deposit receives interest as follows:

- Tier 1: THB 0 - 10,000 (A)

Interest rate of 0.50°

- Tier 2: Exceeding THB 10,0000 - 50,000 (B)
- Tier 3: Exceeding THB 50,000 - 100,000 (C)

Interest rate of 2.88*

- Tier 4: Exceeding THB 100,000 (D)

Interest rate of 0.20*

*Average interest rate (A) = 0.50% (B) = 0.50% - 1.54% (C) = 1.54% - 2.21% (D) = 0.20% - 2.21%

*Based on deposit interest rates most recently announced by the Bank.

In the case of Pherm Kar Sabai Jai fixed deposit, the interest will be calculated based on the account balance at the end of day at the rate of Pherm Kar Sabai Jai fixed deposit on the account opening date throughout the deposit period.

2.8 Tax benefit 2.8.1

Eligibility for interest tax exemption for each deposit type shall be as defined by the Revenue Department.

2.8.2

Tax exemption is granted to any deposit with total interest up to THB 20,000 in that particular tax year. For any deposit account with total interest receivable over THB 20,000, the Bank is duty-bound to deduct the withholding tax from the savings account balance in the actual calculated amount for paying to the Revenue Department. In this regard, the depositor may opt not to include in the personal income tax calculation only deposit interest that has already been deducted withholding tax. Any interest not deducted withholding tax due to insufficient amount in the savings account balance must be included in the filing for personal income tax calculation at year-end.

3. Fees

Account maintenance fee and other fees relating to all types of deposit shall be as per the Bank's announcement on service fees, penalty fees in relation to deposit and loan, and other service fees at that particular period, or as per the service use terms and conditions of that deposit product.

4. Conditions for special deposit interest

The Bank may consider increasing the interest payable to a depositor on a case-by-case basis as deemed appropriate, by taking into account transactions or business values that are made or potentially made with the Bank, provided that the total interest rate after such increase shall not exceed 4.00% p.a. from the normal interest rate that the Bank offers to the same group of depositors who own the same type of accounts. In this regard,

5. Deposit protection

All Thai baht deposits are protected on principal and interest by the Deposit Protection Agency under the Deposit Protection Act B.E. 2551 or the amendment thereof (if any) for the limits specified by the laws.

Period
